

Community Relations

Kharmagtai Project

KHARMAGTAI

Social License to Operate

Five Pillars of Community Engagement

Environment

Minimize environmental footprint, preserve, and rehabilitate

Heritage

Respect culture, nomadic way of life, and religious beliefs

Education

Promote education for future

Sustainable Living

Impact sustainable living by providing employment and economic outreach

Health

Support well-being

Our Social Footprint – Rings of Impact

Community

Education

Health

Environment

Heritage

Sustainable Living

Our 5 Pilars of Community Relation

Environment

- Water management
- Waste management
- Air quality and green house emission
- Biodiversity (flora, fauna)
- Land and rehabilitation

Our 5 Pillars of Community Relation

Protection of National Heritage

Celebrations of Traditional events such as Naadam festivals, Lunar New and other

Worshiping a sacred mountain

Renovation of cultural places such as Bilgekh bag center

Fodder and supplements to the herding animals

Support for the fodder plantation

Our 5 Pillars of Community Relation

Education

Kindergarten

All 8 classrooms are fully fitted for 30th kindergarten with 321 kids

School

School supply for 38 students in secondary school

University

Provided tuition for 131 students for 10 years

Our 5 Pillars of Community Relation

Supporting the Sustainable living

A total of 42 out of 80 employees working in Kharmagtai are local residents (54%)

Expanding the local procurement

Additional income from diverse sources for herders

Our 5 Pilars of Community Relation

Health Program

Spring vitamin drive for all members of herders' families

Senior's sanatorium for 135 prsn

Medical and cooling equipment was handed over to the hospital serving more than 7300 citizens of Tsogtsetsii Soum

Medical examination for 300 locals

